UNIVERSAL BLACKNESS

Expressionless faces, staring at the novelty
Nobody's foolish enough to shed a tear
Incidental music, sick, sick
Smell it in the air, everywhere
It helps us forget the hate

Reassemble stories to end a century
Words lose all meaning
We grow old, we're timeless
Tick, tick, incidental music, sick, sick
Smell it in the air, everywhere
It helps us forget the hate

For all those that forget God, there's a burning Hell
Be one of us!
I was half outta my mind, I didn't know what i was doing
I was sick, I was sick...

Expressionless faces, staring at the novelty
Nobody's foolish enough to shed a tear

(chant)
There can be happiness beyond death
You've got to believe that!
(chant)
Everybody has to die
You've got to belive that
For all those that forget God, there's a burning Hell
I was sick, I was sick
Everybody has to die
(chant)
